The tremendous Promises of Divine Mercy Sunday (Given by Jesus to St. Faustina)

Truly, of all the gifts lavished upon humanity from heaven, none may reach the summit of generosity and mercy of Divine Mercy Sunday. This Feast Day of the Church, instituted by St. John Paul II in the year 2000, is celebrated on the Sunday following Easter. It came about because of a request from Jesus, Himself, through His chosen instrument, a Polish nun named Sr. Faustina Kowalska, who was canonized that same year. Jesus said to St. Faustina about the promise regarding Divine Mercy Sunday:

“My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day, all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity... The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy.” (Diary of St. Faustina, paragraph 699)

The promise of this day is nothing less than the forgiveness of all sins and punishment due to sin (time in purgatory) for anyone who would do two simple things: go to Confession and receive Jesus in Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday. One may receive the Sacrament of Confession within 8 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday. What this means is that when a soul has received the sacraments of Confession and received Holy Eucharist on this Feast Day of Divine Mercy, no matter the sins they have committed, and no matter the good they neglected to do, their soul emerges perfectly clean and forgiven. Should they die just after receiving the sacraments, their soul would bypass purgatory, (be free of temporal punishment) and they would fly straight to heaven. To say “no” to this gift would be foolish madness. For those of us who do take advantage of this, it is an unparalleled gift.
