Annual Catholic Appeal Weekend

The ACA is an opportunity to remind Catholics that we are part of the Universal Church and not just our local parish. Some of the ministries supported by the ACA are:

- Seminary Support (we have one from our parish now in the seminary—Robbie Kelly)
- Deacon Formation—Clarence Montoya
- Catholic Radio
- TV Mass
- Catholic Schools
- Many more listed on the pamphlet in the pew.

Next week is pledge weekend and a message from the Archbishop. You will be asked to prayerfully make your pledge at that time. Even the smallest contribution, when added together, make a tremendous impact.

Prayer for Charity in Truth

Father, your truth is made known in your Word. Guide us to seek the truth of the human person. Teach us the way to love because you are Love.

Jesus, you embody Love and Truth. Help us to recognize your face in the poor. Enable us to live out our vocation to bring love and justice to your people.

Holy Spirit, you inspire us to transform our world. Empower us to seek the common good for all persons. Give us a spirit of solidarity and make us one human family.

Warren Roybal returns from Seminarian

Warren wants to offer his thanks for your prayers & support that so many have offered to him during his time in the Seminary. After months of prayer & working with spiritual direction, he has discerned that it is God's will for him to return home & begin a new stage in his life.

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

January 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The past few years have been filled with many challenges, locally and globally. Pope Francis, for 2023, has requested that we pray for the challenges facing humanity, for educators, for peace in the world, for victims of abuse, for the youth, for the marginalized, and for the Synod. Through these challenging times, the people of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe have remained faithful to our Heavenly Father, as He has been faithful to us. I want to thank You for your faithfulness and for your commitment to the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). The ministries, programs and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe are moving forward with a renewed faith-filled energy for a promising future due to your faithfulness and commitment. Given all we have endured together, it is fitting that this year's Annual Catholic Appeal Campaign 2023 theme is Rebuild My Church: A Future of Hope and Healing.

The ACA Appeal supports the ministries, programs and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, such as our Catholic schools, with professional staff, tuition assistance and professional development for our educators, and helps achieve our mission of providing an exceptional education to our children. It also allows us to create and promote our faith formation programs, which bring hope and faith to our youth and young adults. I'm sure we can all agree that the education and development of our seminarians is also very important to our future. Your generosity to the Annual Catholic Appeal provides the means to ensure they are ready to be your future parish priests, and to support our community. In addition, your participation in the ACA supports the outreach achieved through Pastoral Ministry, Social Justice, and Family Life ministries, as well as Catholic Charities, as they continue to serve and minister to our neediest brothers and sisters with sincere compassion.

By supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal, you will be delivering hope to our youth, young adults, families, and seniors, and to our parish communities, while living our mission in the world. I ask you to consider prayerfully supporting this inspiring work of the Lord. I believe that we have much reason to look to the future with hope. I am truly grateful for you and your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please be assured of my prayers and gratitude for you. May God give you joy and enthusiasm for sharing your faith in Jesus Christ and His Church!

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Most Reverend John C. Wester
Archbishop of Santa Fe

One Minute Meditations

Flee temptation

Christians are meant for Heaven.

Yet, the world can work against our efforts for holiness. St. Peter tells us to "escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires" (2 Peter 1:4). Ask God often to protect you from sin, to give you the wisdom and courage to make good choices and, become sensitive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. God will reveal when you've messed up, and rejoice with you when you get it right.

Serve without complaint

Every job has aspects about it that are tedious, messy, and unrewarding, yet they are necessary. However, they can be opportunities to grow in virtue: humility, patience, self-discipline, etc. When you dread doing your work, smile and say a prayer, "and your Father, who sees in secret, will repay you" (Matthew 6:4).

"The works of God are all of them good; in its own time every need is supplied" (Sirach 39:16).

Take steps to share your faith during Lent

Jesus didn't intend for the Great Commission - "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19) - to be a heavy burden.

He meant witnessing to His love to come through the natural course of living a Christ-inspired life. Consider making more disciples this Lent:

Live a Catholic life. Non-believers may hear what we say about Jesus, but they are persuaded by seeing how our love for Him shapes our lives. It is critical that worship - Sunday Mass, Confession, Scripture - informs our life choices. When we spend time in Jesus' presence, His character rubs off on us.

Bring Christ out into the world. Jesus asked that we care for the poor and needy, thus acting as

His hands and feet in the world. We may not be able to solve all of their problems, but we can show them the reality of Christ's love in their lives.

Talk about God's plan. God wants us each to experience the peace He offers.

Help others know that God's love is personal and He has a specific plan for each of us.

Invite. Some people will be ready to "come and see," so consider inviting seekers to Mass. Others might be ready to "take up and read." Share your favorite inspirational reading. If you need other suggestions, ask your pastor or favorite religious.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics strike their chests?

When we use our voices, our minds, and even our bodies during prayer, we pray with deeper meaning and enthusiasm. During the Confiteor at Mass, for example, we strike our chest three times, saying,

"through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault." It's an ancient symbol of sorrow and repentance for having offended God or hurting our neighbor. Such a gesture reminds us to take responsibility for our actions and pray for forgiveness and grace to change.

Lent leads us back to God

"For gracious and merciful is he, slow to anger, rich in kindness, and relenting in punishment" (Joel 2:13). Lent may be a penitential season, but it is also a wonderful reminder that no matter how we let sin interfere in our relationship with God, He always wants us back. Gracious and merciful is He.

"Return to me with your whole heart." Throughout the year, sin creeps into our daily lives almost without our noticing. A bad habit such as using bad language or gossiping can keep us from loving God fully. Lent is a time to examine our lives and sweep aside whatever keeps us from giving God our whole heart.

"Rend your hearts, not your garments." God doesn't just want outward acts of repentance. Our Father wants a change of heart. Start with Confession and then practice virtues such as prudence, temperance, and fortitude.

"Gather the people, notify the congregation." Become more active in your parish to build it up. Consider attending Mass more often than just once a week.

from Scripture

Matthew 4:1-11, Victory in the wilderness

In this passage, Jesus is tempted by the devil. Having witnessed the Father's declaration at His baptism, Satan tested Jesus' identity as the Son of God. His goal was to tempt Jesus to embrace an earthly and political mission and to distract Him from the suffering and death that would lead to the world's salvation.

Satan tempted Jesus to satisfy His hunger with a miracle – to put physical needs above spiritual needs. In His response, Jesus taught us to put spiritual needs first and to entrust both body and soul to God's care. Next, Satan commanded Jesus to jump from the temple roof in an effort to force God to miraculously save Him. Again, Jesus refused. God is not to be forced or controlled.

Finally, Satan offered to surrender all the kingdoms of the world if Jesus would worship him. That would save Jesus from the Cross. Instead, Jesus chose the Cross because it was the only way to save us. When tempted to do what's "easy" versus what's morally right, ask for the strength to choose what's right.

Q & A

What's a simple way to explain the Faith, if asked?

St. Peter says to be ready to "account for the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15). Consider using this simple, five-point explanation, inspired by Bishop Michael Jackels:

Pinky: The smallest finger recalls our weakness and need for a Savior.

Although Jesus redeemed us, we're still weak and must pray for God's graces daily.

Ring finger: To save us, Jesus took on our human nature, "wedding" Himself to us. At Sunday Mass, we worship God and become one with Him in Holy Communion.

Middle finger: Jesus was raised up on the Cross for sins, then raised from the dead. We attend Confession monthly and receive the saving graces. We hope to be raised to eternal life.

Pointer: Jesus' call is universal, yet personal. He singled you out and chose you to follow Him; only you can give Jesus your "Yes" – in word and deed.

Thumb: Lastly, hitchhikers point their thumbs to ask, "Are you on my way?" Likewise, we're called to ask, "Are you going His Way?" (John 14:6).

Feasts & Celebrations

Lent begins February 22, and is devoted to the Passion of Our Lord. One form of observance is to pray the Stations of the Cross and meditate on Jesus' walk to Calvary.

February 1 – St. Brigid of Ireland (525). Born to an Irish chieftain and an enslaved mother in Ireland, St. Brigid founded a monastery for monks and nuns at Kildare and served as abbess until her death.

February 11 – Our Lady of Lourdes (1858). A heavenly "lady" appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous, a poor girl from a village in France and a miraculous spring emerged from a nearby cave. The "lady" revealed herself as the "Immaculate Conception," the Blessed Virgin Mary.

February 22 – Ash Wednesday. The first day of Lent. Ashes are placed on the foreheads as a sign of penance.

February 27 – St. Gregory of Narek (1003). Born in Armenia to a devout Christian family, St. Gregory entered the Narek Monastery and was ordained in 977. He wrote treatises, letters, mystical poems, and Scripture commentaries.

Ever Immaculate Virgin Mother of Mercy, Health of the sick, refuge of sinners, Comforter of the afflicted, you know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings; look with mercy on me.
